Номокомо, Јику 26тн, 1886. On Saturday we reproduced a report of th paper read by His Excellency Sir George

Bowen at the Colonial Institute on "The Federation of the British Empire." The question just now, though one of great interest to many leading politicians, is to some extent in England overshadowed by that Ireland. The time is doubtless not yet ripe for Federation, but the tendency is decidedly in that direction, and must turn in the direction of separation. those who desire to see the numerous scattered portions of the British empire onhere, should use their influence to promote Federation. In most of the larger colonies branches of the Imperial Federation League have been founded, some of which are in a flourishing state, and working hard to secure the dissemination of their views. At Singaready counts over 150 members on its muster roll, a majority of whom are British born Chinese. A meeting of the members of the League was held in the Singapore Town Hall on the 16th instant under the presidency of it from Messrs. Stephenson and Co.'s yard, His Excellency the Governor, Sir FEEDERICE | Newcastle, where it was built. ### POST-OFFICE NOTICES.

When Correspondence has been mis-sent or delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addressee need do is to note on the cover, Sent to _____, or Received at 7 n.m., or as the case may be, and forward it, without any other writing whatever, to the Postmaster-General. This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs; it is a mistake to let such matters pass for fear of giving trouble, a course which generally gives more trouble in the end.

LOCAL DELIVERY .- No delivery is attempted on board Ship, at the Peak, Kowloon, Aberdoon, &c., nor at any private house (even though named in the address) when there is a place of business nearer at which delivery can be effected.

The Postal Guide for 1886, revised to date will be found in the Daily Press Directory. p. 385 large edition, p. 701 small edition. This is the only authorised complete Summary of Postal information published in Hongkong.
